WAR

Miss Rachana Purkayastha
Class X B, Pawar Public School, Chandavili, Mumbai (Maharashtra)

First light breaks on yet one more day
Nevertheless, the light is mysteriously gone;
On this sky dim and dim
Trust appears to be lost on this fight ground.
Numerous young fellows have passed on here, penances were made In any case, was it justified, despite all the trouble, did it bring any change;
For what reason did we not stop these men who were sold out
From their own special pioneers themselves' identity apprehensive.
The young fellows trusted in experience
In any case, much to their dismay;
That of the dangerous diversion
they were the bait
Their grit and boldness right up until today is yet aglow.
With their initial step onto the war zone
They discovered reality;
Their expectation was lost and their destiny fixed
That they would be taken from this world
still in their childhood.
These men casualties of society and anxious to please
We as a whole implore that they rest in peace;
They leave with an exercise that we as a whole should learn and utilize
That life is a blessing too valuable to lose.
